FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HenHouse Brewing Company Honored by Harvest Fair for Excellence in the Craft Beer Industry

SANTA ROSA, CA – September 7, 2018 – Founded in 2011, HenHouse Brewing Company was started by three Petaluma friends with a passion for creating quality beer. Seven years later, HenHouse Brewing Company has become a household name featuring many underappreciated styles while always focusing on community. The Sonoma County Harvest Fair is honored to present HenHouse Brewing Company with the 2018 award for Excellence in the Craft Beer Industry.

At its core HenHouse Brewing Company is a reflection of their dedication to the community; even down to their building materials. Their brewhouse was built in Healdsburg. The redwood featured in the tasting room is from the historic Sturgeon Mill in Occidental. They partner with local farmers and ranchers to reuse and repurpose spent grain. They truly have created a business that gives back to the community at every step.

“HenHouse Brewing is so ‘Stoked’ to be honored with this award,” said Scott Goyne, co-founder. “We are committed to continue building HenHouse into a business that has a positive force in our Sonoma County. Creating careers, forging local business relationships, and using local agricultural inputs are key tenements to the philosophy of our coop.”

In early 2018, HenHouse returned to where the company was hatched with the opening of their Petaluma location, “The Palace of Barrels.” The addition allowed for the Bellevue Avenue location to be upgraded and retrofitted to match the company’s growth. The new Petaluma taproom and blenders allow the company to expand its selection of beers by utilizing barrel-aging and mixed fermentation.

“Receiving this Honor from the Sonoma County Harvest Fair is very special to us - the fair strives to maintain a forum that honors the great Sonoma County agricultural heritage,” said Goyne. “HenHouse is so ‘Stoked’ to be part of the amazing food production that is occurring in this great Sonoma County. Yes, we did just call beer, food. ‘mic drop’.”
