Harvest Fair Celebrates the Bounty of Sonoma County, October 4 & 5

Award-winning wines, small food bites and a good old-fashioned grape stomp

SANTA ROSA, CA –October 4, 2019 – Locals and visitors alike can gather in Grace Pavilion for a two-day wine packed event to toast the county’s hard-working farmers, ranchers, vintners and producers. Sip or stomp your way through the 2019 Sonoma County Harvest Fair on October 4th and 5th.

The epicenter of the 2019 Harvest Fair will be the Tasting Pavilion, featuring the area’s best wine. With over 100 Sonoma County wineries participating (with over 300 wines), even the most experienced connoisseur is sure to find a new favorite. The Grand Harvest Tasting ticket offers guests the chance to savor all of the award-winning wine from this year’s Professional Wine Competition and enjoy some small food bites.

Rounding out the weekend is the ever popular, hilarious and action-packed KZST World Championship Grape Stomp competition, which can only be experienced at the Harvest Fair. Teams will compete on both days trying to garner a coveted spot in the championship stomp, Saturday at 4:30 pm. In addition to bragging rights and purple-stained extremities, winning teams vie for a grand prize of $1,500. If you feel up to the challenge, find out more and enter today at HarvestFair.org/grape-stomp. Grape Stomp fans and spectators of all ages are welcome to attend this free admission event.
